J. J. Fitzgerald the plumber is fitting up the residence of Mr. William F. Hall with a hot water heating system.

The interesting collection of Australian curiosities will remain on exhibition at the Public Library a few days longer. Persons wishing to see them should take advantage of this opportunity.

The Republican Congressional Committee of the Louisville District has arranged for Governor McKinley to speak in the interest of the Hon. Walter Evans, the date to be fixed for some time in October.

Lawrence Station, ten miles above Ironton, was entirely without water Saturday. Every stream, spring and well in this vicinity was dried up. The trains carried 50,000 gallons of water in tanks to the citizens.

Carrie Ritchie, an inmate of the County Infirmary, slipped her clothes and herself away Saturday. She staid with parties on the Ohio side all night, and was brought across Sunday morning. Bivouacking along the river bank until yesterday, she was ushered before Judge Wadsworth, who gave her a pass to Cynthia, which she claimed as her home.

HOW HE MADE IT.
Fooled with science
Night and day;
Frittered half his Life away.

Occupied a
Learned seat;
Could half make
Bread to eat!

Wrote fine essays—
Polished well;
Not a single
Book would sell.

Desperation
Seized him then;
Struck an idea—
Seized his pen.

Wrote a song called
"Sweetheart's Dear!"
Now he is a Millionaire!

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—TWO WARMER
GROW.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER'll
be;
Unless Black's shown—no change
we'll see

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

The Kanawha river is lower than ever before known.

The Bluebell Springs, a resort for buffalo and other game, gave a name to Licking river.

The divers are still at work on the sunken Sea Lion at Ironton, but have failed to float her.

Captain Will Kirker is just recovering from the effects of a severe fall at his home in Covington.

Cynthiana's Opera-house is to be converted into a grain warehouse in the sweat by and-by.

Hon. Thomas W. Mitchel, nominated Saturday by the Republicans of Boyd for County Attorney, is a brother of Mr. E. W. Mitchel of this city.

October 8th will be the thirty-second anniversary of the battle of Perryville, and the old soldiers of Boyle county have arranged to celebrate the occasion by a reunion.

The Portsmouth and Ironton papers tell of a dancing master fraud named Friend, and say he "touched" Maysville folks for big graft. No; that is one of the "friends" who gave us the go-by. No such dude has been here.

Ben Duvall, a Breckinridge man, shot and fatally wounded Ed. Faulkner at Russell's Mills Sunday morning. They quarreled over the Congressional race. Faulkner was shot through the right lung and arm on the steps of the Christian Church.

The News isn't slinging any red ink in consequence of the defeat of the Ashland Baseball Club by our Regulars in Saturday's game. Glad of it. The Ashland boys acted like perfect gentlemen, and there wasn't a "kick"—either during or after the game.

Colonel Fred Bruner, who has so ably held up his end of the string with the Maysvilles this season, left this morning for Ashland, where he has signed with the ball team of that city. Mr. Bruner made many friends while here, and all wish him success in his future undertakings.

Just received a handsome line of K. of P., Oddfellows and Knight Templars charms. I will place on sale, commencing today, my entire line of sterling silver spoons and forks at the greatest reduction yet offered. Now is the time to buy. P. J. Murphy the Jeweler, successor to Hopper & Murphy.

Colonel George Strawder the tonsorialist contemplates a sign after this fashion:
GEORGE STRAWDER,
Ornithological Absolution and Ornithological Trips.

Phrenological Hair Cutter and Hydro-pathical Shaver of Beards.

Work physiognomically executed.

Traveling salesmen who make all the cities along the Ohio river between Pittsburg and Cincinnati say without hesitation that the sunsets as seen from this city excel those of any place along the river. One gentleman who had visited Italy, the land of the beautiful sunsets, claims that ours are equal to those which the poets rave about.—Ironton Irontonian.

Yes; it's the same beautiful story that they spin about every other place. The Ledger once heard a drummer say that he never saw such sunsets as those he viewed from Maysville;—and five minutes after the relator and relatee were looking at one of 'em through the bottom of a pair of Tucc Lambden's field glasses.

Tamar Baker was exonerated from the charge of a breach of the peace.

Mrs. Sarah R. Thompson of Muse's Mill has been granted a widow's pension.

Miss Ethelene Wall and party at last accounts were enjoying the sights of Vienna.

An effort is being made to get Robert J., the great pacer, to show his speed at the coming Louisville trots.

Dexter Dryden, for disorderly conduct, was admonished by Judge Wadsworth and dismissed on account of youth.

Martin Wall shot off his gun and the end of his index finger, and he was fined $3 and costs for artillery firing in the city.

The Electricians again defeated the Young Regulars by a score of 9 to 7. Batteries—Electricians, Ort and Willett; Young Regulars, Rogers and Watkins.

Mrs. Annie O'Rourke, sister of the late P. S. Gilmore of musical fame, and cousin of Mr. M. R. Gilmore of this city, died recently in Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Senator Peffer has begun a campaign in Kansas in opposition to the re-election of Senator Martin, on the ground that he has deserted the Populists and acted with the Democrats.

Captain George W. Dameron of Richmond, Ind., has been appointed Steamboat Inspector at Cincinnati to succeed Augustus Moore, who has served in that capacity for the past 25 years.

Major P. P. Johnson, President of the National Trotting Horse Association, has temporarily reinstated Monroe Salisbury, who was suspended for violating the rules in shipping his filly while she was in a race which was pending.

Somehow or another, THE LEDGER yesterday got the cart ahead of the horse. It was H. A. Shown who cut Frank Goodwin, instead of Goodwin cutting Shown. The blunder is regretted and the correction is made with pleasure.

Michael Hollis, the well known Sculptor, is executing some very fine designs at the Marble Works of M. R. Gilmore. One is a novel piece for the grave of Mrs. Lumira Tuel of Sardis, and another for the grave of Mrs. Thomas Gilmore at Washington.

The G. A. R. Campfire will be lighted Thursday night. Hon. S. J. Pugh will make the opening address. There will be prominent speakers present during the entire meeting. There will be dancing for the young folks and old folks, too, so all who go will enjoy themselves without doubt.

Polk Badget, or a horse which has passed for several years as the famous ringer, is dead. He was killed near Bowling Green. The horse was on pasture, and in a jumping a fence fell into a sink-hole. He broke both forelegs and crushed his shoulders, the accident resulting in his death a short while afterwards.

Marshal John Mitchell, who killed Bill Clark at Mayslick, yesterday waived examination before Judge Phister and gave bond in $3,000 to appear before the Grand Jury. Thomas Wells, B. Frank Clift, Harvey G. Wells, Joseph F. Perrie and William Mitchell, representing more than half a million dollars, went on the bond.

Sarah Dickson, who some time ago was an inmate of the County Infirmary and who afterward charged an attack of that institution with being the parent of her child, and who is now at Ellsberry, O., writes to parties here that she has named her offspring Irena Slack, saying the father was John Slack, who was then Assistant Superintendent of the Infirmary.

The Republican picnic held near Owingsville Saturday was attended by probably 3,000 people. The speakers were Hon. W. O. Bradley, Hon. S. J. Pugh, the nominee for Congress in the Ninth District, and Hon. J. P. McCartney and Wallace S. Gudgeon. It was a gala day and much enthusiasm was manifest. The Republicans of the county are heartily encouraged.

Either Saturday night or Sunday night thieves entered the Circuit Court room at the Owensboro Courthouse and played havoc with the Clerk's records. Every indictment found at the recent term of court was stolen and torn to fragments. The pieces were found scattered around in all parts of the Courthouse yard. The Clerk's large order book was mutilated and disfigured so as to be worthless, and the Clerk will be greatly inconvenienced.

D. J. Hauss the expert electrician imagines that he thinks the Maysville Street Railway owes him $2,300 for services rendered, and he has sued the company for that amount in the Federal Court at Covington. The case will probably come up before Judge Barr today. As the Street Car Company's contract was with the Westinghouse Company, and as Mr. Hauss was employed by the latter to do the work, and as the contract price was paid to the Westinghouse Company, Mr. Hauss may find out that what he thinks he thinks is imagination in reality.

Carrie Hester, drunk and disorderly, paid $1 and costs yesterday.

Mrs. Kate Cadden sold to Mary Eliza Carr a lot in Hordsville for $170.

Bowling Green and a part of Warren county will give a poultry show this fall.

Last month's freight business of the C. and O. at this point was $800 greater than that of August, 1893.

C. J. Conlon and others have been authorized to close the Charleston Bottom road, heretofore used by the public.

At Paris the Owens men are offering to bet $1,000 to $100 that Owens is the nominee. The talk about a contest is looked upon as a trick to get the weak Owens men who have made bets to draw them, and thus give the Breckinridge betters a chance to get their money back.

WATCH FOR TO MORROW'S LEDGER!

Mrs. America Allcorn, the wife of a farmer, in Bullitt county committed suicide at Louisville by taking two ounces of laudanum. Her husband beat her and drove her from home. She walked all the way to that city and took poison, from the effects of which she died two hours later.

One important question that will come before the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., now in session at Chattanooga, will be that of dues and benefits. A voluminous report on that matter was made by a special committee at Milwaukee last year, in which tables and statistics given showed that some Lodges are now paying a benefit so large in proportion to dues charged that final bankruptcy is inevitable. The laws governing dues and benefits will therefore be changed to remedy the evil.

Attention! Members of Maysville Division No. 6, U. R. K. of P., are urged to attend meeting this (Tuesday) evening at 7:30. R. M. CARTMELL, S. K. C.

CONFERENCE NOTES.

More Characters Passed Upon—The Charges Against Dr. Poynter.

At the Conference of the M. E. Church, South, the characters of these additional Ministers, located in this section, were passed:

J. D. Redd, Sharpsburg and Bethel. W. S. Grinstead, North Middletown. W. A. Penn, Mt. Olivet. M. P. Morgan, Tollesboro. G. M. F. Hampton, Millersburg. T. W. Watts, Maysville.

Bishop Duncan appointed E. L. Southgate, D. B. Cooper and W. F. Taylor a committee of investigation in the matter of Dr. W. T. Poynter, charged with heresy.

The arrest of the character of Dr. Poynter was somewhat of a surprise to his innumerable friends, as he has been esteemed not only a very broad-minded, pure and excellent man, but an orthodox Methodist of the highest character.

The Conference evidently does not consider the complaint a serious one, though under its rules and regulations the passing of his character is necessarily suspended until the committee has made its report and formal action is taken.

Quite a number of members of the Conference who live in the Seventh Congressional District went home to vote for Owens.

There were none to go home and vote for Breckinridge.

A Bourbon county farmer claims to own a sow that had sixty-three pigs in three litters during the past twelve months.

About five hundred Oddfellows attended the first day's meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge at Lookout Mountain Chattanooga.

E. H. Daniels of Princeton has constructed private water-works for his own use. He has offered to furnish the city with water if they allow him to lay pipes and pay a small rental.

Among the curiosities to be seen at the Hazel Green Fair last week was the famous Wells family of Wolfe county. This household consists of twin husbands, twin wives, and two sets of twin babies—each and all red-headed.

THE LEDGER always takes great pleasure in printing free notices of picnics and entertainments, especially where the parties pay somebody else for printing their bills and tickets. Don't be modest, gentlemen; come right along with your notices.

At Fort Scott, Kans., a robber with a revolver commanded a young woman, who was alone in a business house, to open the safe. Instead of complying and then swooning, in the approved style, she calmly locked the safe and exclaimed: "Now shoot!" The robber fled in terror.

PATRIARCHS MILITANT.

A Pleasant Social Affair Follows Last Night's Meeting.

Canton Maysville No. 2, P. M., held its regular monthly meeting at Oddfellows' Hall last night, Captain John T. Parker presiding.

After the routine business there was a social gathering in the Library, where Icecream.

Cakes,
Cigars,
Conversation

and jokes served to drive worldly cares away and afford a pleasant refreshment of the physical as well as the mental powers.

The "spread" was the outgrowth of the generosity of Lieutenant George Schwartz, and to the creative skill of Mr. Henry Liss was due the excellence of the ices.

The projectors hoped that this "inducement" would prove a drawing card, and it is to be regretted that there were so few present.

But another effort is promised in the near future.

MASONIC ELECTION.

THE LONG AGO.

When the War-Time Existed in Our Now Quiet City.

C. L. Overley has favored THE LEDGER with a souvenir of war times in Maysville.

It consists of a receipt in the following form:

Received of Captain D. E. Roberts, Company A of the East Maysville Home Guards, one United States musket, which I promise to keep in good order, and return to him when required by him or the officer in command of said Company. Witness my hand at Maysville, May 23d, 1861.

These receipts are 56 in number, signed separately by the names below:

Captain Roberts was the well-known miller, gathered to his fathers long ago; and it will be interesting to old citizens to go over the list and see who of the signers survive.

After a regular meeting had adjourned the Aldermen of Newport got together and decided to repeal the law permitting poolrooms to run in that city. If the Council will concur with the other board all is over with the poolrooms.

Contracts will soon be let out for a fine $20,000 hotel at Milldale, not far from the Latonia Race Course. Architects John H. Boll & Co. are at work on the plans. Local capitalists have joined with Covington capitalists in its construction.

A family in Winchester lost their household effects in a fire. Money was given them by charitable people to replace the lost goods, but the husband took a part of the money and got "bbling" drunk and was put in jail. The good wife took the balance and bailed him out.

Colonel S. D. Pinkerton, one of the leading Republicans of Central Kentucky, says the Republicans will have a candidate for Congress in the Seventh District. He said neither McDowell nor Lindsay would make the race against anybody but Breckinridge, and that George Denny will be the Republican candidate.

Mushrooms are now plentiful in the bluegrass fields, and it does not require an expert to distinguish the delicious fungi from the poisonous frogstool. The Richmond Register epicurean gives this recipe for gathering and cooking the rival of the fresh oyster: "Mushrooms are pink colored under the caps and easily peel off like a boiled potato. Cook them as you would fresh oysters, stewed or fried. Soak in salt water an hour before cooking."

BEAUTY IN THE BATH.

A Bourbon County Girl's Cruel Joke on Her Sisters.

Winchester Sun.

During the warm weather last week a large party of young girls from Paris came up to Strode's creek, near Thatcher's Mill, and selecting a most quiet spot, they disrobed and enjoyed a bath.

They had a regular picnic until there appeared on the bank of the creek a young man.

This created a commotion, and there was screaming and a regular stampede for the woods ensued.

One very modest young lady dived to the bottom of the creek, grabbed a root and hung on until almost drowned.

When all quieted down it was found that one of the young ladies had taken along a suit of her brother's clothing in order to have some fun, and had slipped away and put them on.

It was a horrid thing to do, and the frightened damsels have not yet forgiven her.

NOT FOR PHIL.

Col. Thompson's Daughter Will Not Marry a Kentucky Man.

It was Col. Phil Thompson who said that his client, the late Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge, was no worse than any other Kentuckian,—or something equally insulting to the decent people of this state,—and it is Col. Phil Thompson's daughter, Miss Mattie, who will be married next month to Mr. William Davis of New York.

The ceremony is to take place at the residence of Secretary Carlisle, with whose wife the handsome bride-elect is a great favorite.

Mr. Davis is a Georgetown (D. C.) man. Whether he will take his bride to New York, where he has lived so much of late, or to St. Louis, where he is part owner in a newspaper, will be left to her to determine.

Miss Thompson has been in Germany all summer, and lately in Paris to purchase her trousseau.

She will be in Washington City this week and until her wedding day, Wednesday, October 31st, will be the guest of Mrs. Carlisle.

Mrs. Jeff Davis, who is a cousin of the groom, will be present at the wedding.
